Numb. 7585.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday February 12. to Tuesday February 15. 1736.

Vienna, February 6, N. S.

A Courier arrived on the 1st Instant from Prince Pio at Venice, with Advice, that he the Emperor's Ambassadour having had at last an Account of the Imperial Troops having actually taken Possession of Tuscany, had thought proper to deliver on the 17th past, N. S. the Emperor's Passport to Count Fuenclara, the Spanish Ambassadour to this Court, who is now expected here on the 14th or 15th Instant. Yesterday Morning at Ten of the Clock the Dutchess of Lorrain was brought to Bed of a Princess, who was baptized the same Evening at Six of the Clock in the Duke of Lorrain's second Antichamber. The Pope's Nuncio performed the Ceremony. The Emperor stood Godfather, the Godmothers were the two Empresses, and the youngest Archdutchess in the Name of the Dutchess Dowager of Lorrain.

Dresden, Feb. 13, N. S. Count Kevenhuller, the Imperial Minister late at the Court of Denmark, passed through this Place on Friday last on his Way for Vienna. By Letters from the Ukraine we are informed, that Count Munich, before his Departure from Kioff, gave Assurances to the Great General of Poland, that the Czarina would observe the Neutrality with regard to Poland during the War with the Turks. We have News from Vienna, that the Turks are now disposed to treat of Peace, and that they have named Deputies for that Purpose.

Hague, Feb. 19, N. S. We hear that Count Uhlfeldt left Vienna the 12th Instant to return hither by the Way of Brussels. The States of Holland continue their Assembly; but there is no Appearance that any Thing will be done as to the Disposal of the vacant Places, till their ordinary Assembly of next Month. We have an Account here from Constantinople, that the Turks have consented to a Congress upon their Frontiers, and named already their Plenipotentiaries.

Whitehall, February 11, 1736-7.

Whereas on Saturday the 9th of October last, about Ten o'Clock at Night, at a Place called Flints Gate, in the Parish of Forton, in the County of Stafford, John Dearn, Blacksmith, of Loynton, in the said County, was assaulted by divers Persons unknown, one of whom seized his Horse by the Bridle, whilst another knock'd him off his Horse, and, by the Assistance of the others forcibly took from him Fifty Shillings, and beat and bruised him in so barbarous a Manner, that he has languished ever since, and is in great Danger of losing his Life, or the Use of his Limbs: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said Assault and Robbery, is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of the said Persons, who shall discover one or more of his Accomplices, so as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

Admiralty Office, Feb. 8, 1736.

These are to give Notice, That a General Court of the Governours of the Charity for the Relief of Poor Widows of Commission and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy, will be held at this Office on Thursday the 24th Instant, in order to chuse two Vice Presidents and Fifteen Assistants for the Year ensuing.
